The gift of water, one well at a time.

A little help goes a long way. Every dollar of your contribution will go toward the purchase of labor and materials to dig a well for the people in the Diocese of Lui in Sudan. Fresh water will allow children to stay in school and free women from walking miles every day to carry water back to the village. For links to more information, please visit www.stmartinschurch.org.

Any amount in pledges is welcome.
However, if each walker obtains at least a total of $60 in pledges, we can achieve our goal.
