- Communion
- Community
- Being with my fellow parishioners in person
- Receiving communion and participating in the Sunday service.
- Reconnecting with other parishioners
- Being with members of our community
- Communion and fellowship of members
- Fellowship
- hugs
- 🎵🎵🎵🎵 congregational singing!
- I love the experience of worshipping in a community.
- Eucharistic ministry
- Being together as community in the presence of God--to worship, to learn, to celebrate, to serve.
- Reconnecting with friends and fellow parishioners. Also, experiencing live music.
- saturday evening worship
- Worshipping together
- Post-service socialization
- Seeing my friends and being able to worship with them.
- Singing in the choir
- Seeing other people, communion(full)
- The service
- Visiting with friends.
- Communion
- We're new, so just seeing services live, and actual faces of the members.
- in-person Eucharist; greeting parish friends
- Being in the community of friends
- We have been worshipping with you for over a year but only once in person. We look forward to getting to know you all. We are "church goers" and have missed being part of a church family.
- Fellowship with Church family and Sunday school for children
- Worshipping TOGETHER
- WORSHIPING AS A CONGREGATION TOGETHER
- Shaking hands, seeing smiles, and hugs.
- Being in community while receiving communion.
- singing
- A normal in person worship routine
- Seeing other parishioners
- I am looking forward to the spiritual energy St. Martin's has when we worship together.
- The 8 o'clock service! And I would qualify my above answer by saying if everyone is fully vaccinated, or we could be sure that non-vaccinated people were wearing masks. Also would like to see small, fully-vaccinated groups, like Book Club & PJM, be able to meet at church without restrictions.
- Fellowship, as a member of our church family. Also, returning to making eucharistic visits.
- Music, seeing others
- All of it. The music, the people, the message, the peace
- Singing again
- Being able to share the worship experience with others
- FELLOWSHIP AND THE IN-PERSON PARTICIPATION WITH OUR COMMUNITY.
- Communion. And being able to see everyone in person
- a return to "normal", checking in with friends in person and yes, SINGING!
- community worship.
- Physically being within the church
- Returning to our Church and being part of a our spiritual community is what I look forward to the most. Being present in person is very important to me. I have been a St. Martin's Church member since 1973 and I miss all aspects of the service on Sunday morning. I also look forward to joining a weekly Bible Study.
- In person liturgy. I'm old fashioned like that.
- Seeing everyone and being in our beautiful church
- being together for worship services and group activities.
